

① what is the definition of Data? write down on your note copy and upload picture.

Ans: Data is defined as a collection of individual fact or statistics. (while "datum" is technically the singular form of Data, is not commonly used in everyday language) Data can come in the form of text, observation, picture, image, numbers, graphs, or symbol.