

3. Describe characteristics of computer. write down on your note copy & upload picture.

ans=A computer works with much higher speed & accuracy compared to human while performing mathematical calculations. Computer can process million (1,000,000) of instructions per second. The time taken by computers for their operations is microseconds and nanoseconds.